

Find 2 or more not-so-furry friends, and sit around a table. If you don't have 2 or more friends, try the dog park.

Setup

The cards that look like this are Caption Cards. Because they have captions on them.

When someone uses your picture as a meme

WHAT DO YOU MEME?

Start by dealing 7 Caption Cards to each player. The person who touched an animal most recently is the first judge.

How to Play

The judge draws one from the pile. Go ahead and place that Photo Card on that funky easel. Make sure everyone can see it.

Everyone else pairs the funniest of their 7 Caption Cards with the Photo Card in play and passes it to the judge face down.

Once the judge has received a Caption Card from each player, they shuffle them and read them out loud. The judge picks the funniest one, and whoever played that card wins the round.

The winner keeps the Caption Card as a point. After the winner celebrates, everyone draws back up to 7 Caption Cards, and the player to the judge's left becomes the new judge.

How to Win

Keep playing until someone hits the required number of Caption Cards.

Player Count	Caption Cards Needed to Win
3	7
6-10	4

Bonus: Play in Reverse

If you really wanna add some bark to your bite, you can try matching Photo Cards to Caption Cards instead. The game is pretty much the same, except you deal out 3 Photo Cards to each player instead. Place a Caption Card on the easel, and match the funniest photo to the Caption Card in play.

One more thing: You can always add your own pet photos to the game! You can't imagine how funny it is to meme your own pet. Especially if you're playing in reverse.
